

“If you continue in My word,

then are you My Disciples InDeed...”

Am I a “Disciple InDeed”?

Let’s review what Jesus taught us this past year:

1. Do I recognize that seeing my neediness and poverty of spirit is a good thing that leads to blessing in my life?
2. Do I mourn over my sin and embrace God’s conviction when it comes to me?
3. Am I teachable and willing to lay down my rights and trust God to take care of my life, or do I fight for “my way” when it comes down to it?
4. Do I desire righteousness as much as my physical food and drink?
5. Am I merciful to others or am I callous to the hurting?
6. Am I seeing God more and more by allowing Him to purify my heart of all that is unlike Him?
7. Do I seek to make peace and to help others find peace or am I a fighter?
8. Is my life so like Christ that I am persecuted and despised by those who hate Him?
9. Do I view anger as an eternally dangerous sin or do I tolerate it as something normal that can’t be avoided?
10. Do I recognize the close connection between my relationship with God and my relationships with the people around me and strive to keep both clear and open?
11. Am I radical in cutting off from my life anything that causes me to be tempted to sexual lust?
12. Am I committed to a one-man to one-woman marriage until death separates us?
13. Am I a person whose yes means yes and whose no means no or do I lack that kind of integrity?
14. Am I committed to follow Jesus who didn’t fight back when he was abused and taken advantage of by others?
15. Am I willing to let go of my things when others request their use?
16. Am I purposing to love, bless, and pray for my enemies?
17. Do I give, pray and fast in secret believing that my heavenly Father will reward me in His time and way?
18. Do I forgive everyone who offends me and not hold any grudges?
19. Am I using my time, talents and money to lay up treasures in heaven, or am I laying them up here on earth?
20. Does how much time I spend working and what I spend my money on indicate that God is my master, or money?
21. Do I seek God’s kingdom first and trust Him to meet all my needs or do I worry about my finances and the future?
22. Do I judge others or do I seek to help them?
23. Do I ask, seek, and knock for the reality of all these things in my life or are they not that important to me?
24. Do I strive to go on the strait and narrow way that leads to life, or do I see how close to the broad way I can get and still be a Christian?
25. Am I careful whom I allow to influence and teach me about spiritual things or do I just accept everything that comes down the “Christian” pike?
26. Does my calling Jesus “Lord” have an empty ring because of my lack of obedience to Him, or does my life demonstrate the reality of His Lordship?
27. Will my life stand the storms and trials that will come because I’m building on the rock of obedience to Jesus’ commands, or am I on shaky ground?
