

“If you continue in My word,
then are you My Disciples InDeed...”

Disciples Are Good Soil for God’s Word to Grow In

All of God’s creation has something to teach us if we are open to look and listen closely to the message. Jesus did just that and told many stories to His would-be disciples using the physical world as the bridge of understanding to the spiritual world. In this lesson we want to look at one of those bridges that helps us to understand what the heart of a true disciple is like: the timeless story some have called the Parable of the Sower.

The text for our lesson is found in Luke 8:4-15 (as well as Matthew 13:1-23).

- What are the two physical elements that interact with each other throughout the parable? _____
- What spiritual elements do those two correspond to? _____
- In the four scenarios, what is different and what stays the same?

- How many of the soils are ‘disciples indeed’?

Now let’s look and see what the difference is between the Disciples InDeed and the others.

What is wrong with the heart of the ‘wayside soil’ person? _____

What is wrong with the heart of the ‘rocky ground’ person? _____

What is wrong with the heart of the “thorny ground” person? _____

What qualities does the “good ground” person have? _____

How have you seen the seed of God’s Word growing in your life?

Doers of the Word

Is there anything in my life that God has shown me today that I need to take care of so that His Word can be more fruitful in me?
